

Labour Law session 2 - 2019

01 octobre 2019

The managers and HR professionals will have the occasion to discuss topics like the payment of the salary in case of sickness or accident, data protection and transfer of information abroad, the obligations of the employer and the employee, wrongful termination, how to obtain a work permit. We offer a practical approach to enable participants to gain specific and up-to-date knowledge of employment law, international social security and business immigration. Case studies will be discussed, as well as recent case law rendered by Swiss courts. This course is open to all interested persons and prior legal knowledge is not required.

Objectives

- to present the basis of employment, immigration and international social security law;
- to allow each participant to acquire the knowledge needed to properly understand the rules and regulations and foresee problems within these three subject matters, which are essential in the daily management of a company.
